and another.

... Respondents

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V. NAGARJUNA REDDY

WRIT PETITION No.24195 of 2002

ORDER:-

This writ petition is filed for a writ of mandamus to direct the respondents not to interfere with the petitioner's business and not to harass the petitioner.

At the hearing, none appeared for the petitioner. Therefore, the writ petition is liable to be dismissed in default.

Even otherwise, the writ petition deserves to be dismissed in view of the submissions contained in the counter affidavit that on 17.11.2002 the respondents registered crime No.163 of 2002 under Section 420 of the Indian Penal Code against the petitioner and other partners. It is also averred that after knowing about the registration of the case, the petitioner filed the present writ petition in order to evade the process of the Court. The respondents also denied any harassment being meted out to the petitioner.

Having regard to the averments contained in the counter affidavit, which I have no reason to disbelieve, the writ petition is liable to be dismissed and it is accordingly dismissed.
